

Mothers' Union
Diocese of Dublin & Glendalough
“Away From It All” Holidays

AIM:

Dublin & Glendalough MU would like to offer support to people who are already in contact with the wider family of the Church of Ireland and who are:

- In distressing circumstances
- Under stress
- In need of a break from a difficult personal situation they find themselves in and would otherwise find it financially hard to fund a holiday/short break.

AFIA Fund will consider covering the cost of only one of the following criteria per application:

- Travel (within Ireland/UK) to visit family for a break (max contribution €150)
- Rent of holiday accommodation for a family (4 persons+) in Ireland either for a long weekend or max. one week. (max. contribution €350)
- Child to attend Youth Camp associated with D&G Diocese (max. contribution €100)
- Family day out (max. contribution €150)
- Short break for carer (max. contribution €300)

To apply:

- Applications should be sent as soon as possible to Karen Nelson, D&G MU Diocesan President - email address: presidentdgmu@gmail.com
- Applications will be considered in the order they are received.
- Applicants will be notified of availability of funding promptly. (Clergy are asked, to the best of their ability, to ensure the funding is spent as per application.)
- Applications are only for current year.

AFIA fund is an ‘annual’ capped amount and clergy will be informed by email when funding is exhausted for 2019.
